paragraph 2

1. A Chinese Communist order to the Korean commanders stated that the cease-fire talks depend on the outcome of the signing of the Japanese peace treaty, and that a new attack will begin before 4 September to acquire an advantageous position before further cease-fire talks.
2. Soviet counter proposals at the San Francisco Japanese peace treaty meeting will be based on the following six points:
  - a. Communist China be invited to sign the treaty.
  - b. Taiwan be given to Communist China after the signing.
  - c. Japan be given the Bonin Islands.
  - d. Japan pay indemnity to the Southeast Asia countries which suffered war losses.
  - e. The U.S. Army be withdrawn from Japan after the signing.
  - f. Rearmament of Japan to be limited.
